Second Grade Writing: Have someone help you with your writing.

Please email me your work at thomasb@springfieldpublicschools.com

Each day after listening to your read aloud book, please answer the following questions about the story you have read. Write 1-5 sentences for each question.

Who are the characters in the story?

Where is the setting?

What happens in the story?

1. Make sure you start your sentences with a capital letter
2. Put finger spaces in your sentence
3. Use punctuation
4. Make sure your sentences make sense and others can understand what you are trying to say

Math make sure you show your work.

1. Ms. Thomas had 52 erasers. She gave 20 erasers to her students. How many erasers does she have left?
2. There are 22 people at Michael's party, 5 people leave. How many people are still at the party?
3. I have 53 puzzles. Mrs. Monroe gives me 38 more. How many puzzles do I have now?
