Below are six activities. Choose at least 1 from each category to complete this week!

Feel free to email me pictures and videos of your work!

|------------------|--|
| Watch and Listen | 1. Watch a short video. This song is by a famous Russian composer named Pytor Ilyich Tchaikovsky. https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=mQgbnMSm2aQ |
| | 2. Instruments are separated into different groups. We call those groups families! Learn about the wind family here. https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=JjDRBo5N0AU&list=PLZS3MUjYqjUE_waOerFyYZBumFq2Yck0K&index=2 |
| Explore | 3. Music sounds different all around the world. Explore this interactive map to hear a few examples! There are informational videos about the musicians, as well as sound clips of the songs! https://musicalexplorers.carnegiehall.org/ |
| | 4. Explore your own singing voice! What's the highest note you can sing? What's the lowest? Sing along to a couple of songs that you enjoy. |
| Create | 5. Write your own song or rap. I'd love to hear the finished product. Feel free to email videos to me. |
| | 6. It's starting to feel like spring outside! Follow this tutorial to make your own origami flowers. You may need help from an adult to cut the paper to the correct sizes. Also, use plain white paper, then color the finished product! https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=LFHGSHdY8w4 |
